

KADE MILLS – Olds, AB

Horse training has always been a very important part of Kade's life. He began training full time with his dad – Doug Mills, and since then has trained in Canada, the US and Europe. He has started colts for renowned breeders such as Carol Rose Quarter Horses of Gainesville, TX and has had the honor of training with Cody Bill Smith. Kade is a four-time National High School Rodeo finals qualifier in Team Roping and Calf Roping. He practices his fathers' 'training thru trust' program which is an easy and proven program to practice and teach. Kade currently resides and trains near Innisfail, AB and is the winner of Red Deer Trainer Challenge at the 2011 Mane Event.

CAIN QUAM – Kendal, SK

Cain's main focus has been cutting horses; he has successfully shown many champions and reserve champions and has trained many non-pro horses to achieve success in the cutting pen. Cain's versatility and knowledge of a variety of disciplines allows him to start and finish horses that will be used for any discipline whether it's your backyard horse or a specific sport. Cain also offers horsemanship, cutting, ranch roping and colt starting & self development/personal growth workshops. His ability as a clinician and his communication skills make him great teacher of horse and human alike. Cain competed in the Horse 3 Trainer Challenge in Brandon for the past two years, placing first in 2010 www.quamperformancehorses.com.

DALE CLEARWATER – Hanley, SK

Dale began working for the community pasture system in northern Saskatchewan when he was 16 years old and for the next 8 years. During this time he attended clinics, watched videos, worked with several trainers and developed a feel for horses that is outstanding. Pasture work taught Dale many details regarding working and handling cattle and he began training ranch horses as well as competing in ranch horse & working cow horse competitions. Dale has won and placed in several Canadian & National competitions and hosts cow horse clinics, cutting horse clinics and trains horses. In 2011 Dale is a top 30 money earning rider in the National Reined Cow Horse Association. Dale & his wife, Teri and their two sons, Caleb & Westin live and operate their ranch and training centre:
